

Bring History Alive

Henry Ford, role played by Arthur Brood, drives a mini Model T and captures your students' imagination with a presentation about Michigan's automobile history. Your students will enjoy learning about Michigan's history of the early automobile and assembly line in this interactive presentation that meets several Michigan Social Studies Standards.

Cost: $300

Time: 45-60 minute presentation, 40 minutes pre and post set up.

Who: 3rd-5th grade students

Facility needs: Doors with removable center post or extra wide supply entrance at least 38". Screen for presentation, table. If large audiences or large auditorium, a microphone will be needed.

Arthur Brood is an award winning educator

and 4th grade teacher with more than two decades of classroom experience.

In 2015, he was awarded both:

*Michigan Council for History Education
Annette and Jim McConnell History Educator Award*

Michigan Council for the Social Studies Elementary Teacher of the Year.

He is also author of children's historical fiction stories,
The Mud Hole and The Snow Car, geared toward reluctant boy readers.

He is a regular presenter with the Macomb County ISD Author, Specialist, Knowledge (ASK) program.

He has presented to nearly 5,000 students in his different educational programs.

www.arthurbrood.com

author.arthur.classact@gmail.com

Ph. 906-478-7882

Endorsements

"I learned a lot, you totally acted like Henry Ford." - student

That little mini Model T was the coolest." - student

"This performance / presentation was absolutely phenomenal." -4th grade teacher

"Two thumbs up! That was awesome!" -5th grade teacher